Hotel El Convento - 100 Cristo Street, Old San Juan, Puerto Rico 00901
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Our classes will be held in El Convento Hotel in Viejo (Old) San Juan. By merely stepping outside, you will be greeted by an overwhelming abundance of sights, sounds and aromas, while being charmed and fascinated by the history and culture.

Other intriguing and captivating places you may want to visit on your time off (after completing your homework, of course) are;

San Juan, el Morro, el Condado, Culebra, Fajardo, Vieques (on the west coast), el Yunque (on the east coast), Ponce and Rincón .

Hotel El Convento, where our classes are held, is a landmark monument to the Conquistador Age. 356 years ago it was a Carmelite convent; thus, the Spanish Colonial architecture and design

In 1646 construction began on the Carmelite convent through a petition by King Phillip IV of Spain. In July 1651, the convent was inaugurated as the Monastery of Our Lady Carmen of San José and was situated across the street from San Juan Cathedral, the Western Hemisphere's oldest cathedral.
